

Careers - MSc in Marketing Management

The modular approach of the MSc in Marketing Management provides an intensive introduction to marketing theory and concepts which students then apply to different management and industry settings such as luxury brand management, services and e-commerce.

2016 Placement Report

